Who am I?

I am an energetic, creative, design-minded college student who truly believes if you can dream it, you can do it! I see artistic potential in all things, which opens my storyteller heart to continual inspiration. An exploration of new ideas, methods and practices drives my innovative approach to analytical thinking and problem solving.

“ Hayden is the whole package. He is highly competent, confident, ambitious, creative, easy to work with, kind, and skilled at problem solving. I'd work with him any time.”

Antonia Clifford

Professor, BYU-Idaho Theatre Dept.
Rexburg, Idaho
